

Council's Legal Advisor Urges People to Vote for Bond Issue

Fletcher W. Stites, author of this article, is a former Burgess of Narberth and is at present Legal Advisor to Councils. His statement represents experienced and expert judgment.

Shall the Citizens of Narberth Purchase A Public Playground

BY FLETCHER W. STITES.

This question is to be presented to the citizens of Narberth at the November election for their decision. Every thoughtful and conscientious voter will endeavor to decide the question fairly and impartially. As the matter appeals to me, it should be considered from two view-points.

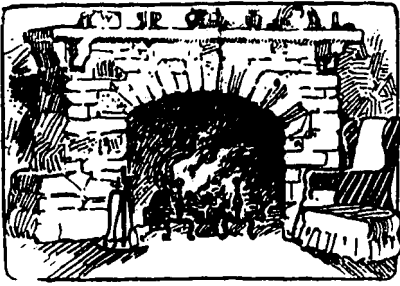

First, is the purchase of a public playground and recreation centre desirable in itself?

Second, if so, can the people of Narberth afford it?

As to the first question, every person who has observed the streets of our town teeming with children and the Board of Education put to its wits-ends to relieve the very over-crowded condition of the schools must have felt that the most vital problem affecting our people today relates to the children. I believe that the purchase of a public playground and recreation centre for the benefit of the children of the community is of the highest importance. There is no problem comparable to that of developing sturdy American manhood and womanhood. A playground and recreation centre contributes directly to such a desirable result.

As to the second question, namely, the ability of the voters and taxpayers to provide the outlay necessary to purchase a playground, it seems to me that the rapid development of Narberth and the enhancement of its real estate values furnishes a prompt answer to this question. I believe that we can meet the increased cost incident to the carrying of the playground without burdening any one. Distributed among our taxpayers, it seems to me that the cost would be exceedingly small, having in mind the desirable results to be secured.

If I felt that the playground would be a burden upon Borough Council, the School Board and the taxpayers, I would be the last one to advocate its purchase, for I have a rather intimate knowledge of the financial problems that confront those who are handling the administration of Borough affairs. In the present case, however, I believe the future development of our Borough will readily and easily take care of the cost of purchasing and maintaining the playground. I am, therefore, in favor of the proposal because I believe it would be of the greatest value to our children and our children's children.

THE FIRESIDE

H. V. Whitney, of Essex Ave., is hunting in the Adirondacks.

The gunning season for rabbits is at hand and a few "bunnies" have been brought in by the hunters.

Mrs. Henry Rose, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Howard Whitney, of Essex Ave., has returned to her home in Port Allegheny, Penna.

Mrs. R. L. Durbin, of Narberth Ave., gave a Halloween party to the Ladies of the "Thimble Club" and their husbands last Thursday evening, all those present report a very good time.

Mr. Wayne D. Burnside, of Ardmore, has accepted the position of subcarrier in the Narberth Post Office, having passed first in the recent Civil Service Examination held at Narberth. Mr. Burnside began his service with Uncle Sam on November 1.

Among Americans returning home from Europe in the past few days was Mr. Abraham L. Jacoby, of 106 Iona Ave., Narberth, who arrived at New York on Tuesday last on the White Star liner Olympic from Southampton and Caerbourg.

It is reported that there is an extra fine lot of rabbits making their headquarters on or about Penhurst Farms, but say, hunters, there isn't a chance to get them as "Nate" Montgomery and "Doremus" Brownback and one or two other fellows have them so trained that if a strange hunter appears some one of the regular fellows blows a peculiar blast on a whistle each one carries and every "bunnie" within hearing immediately skurries to a place of safety. How do they get that way?

The Annual Meeting of the Main Line Federation of Churches will be held next Monday evening in the Memorial Building at Bryn Mawr. Annual reports of the Social Work of the Federation will be given by the Secretaries, Miss Walbaum and Miss Hastings. Brief addresses will be made by Miss Sophie Kefer, Principal of Bryn Mawr Public Schools, and by Dr. R. C. Hoffman, of Narberth. Rev. John Van Ness is President of the Federation. The public is cordially invited.

The Misses Eleanor Burns, Dorothy Mulligan, Edith Maguire, Alma and William Wiegell, members of the Whole Club of Narberth, gave a masquerade party, Friday night, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Weigel. The following were guests: Miss Charlotte and Mr. Clark Blair, of Ardmore, Miss Ruth Colgan, of Phila.; Stanley Hopkins, George Maguire, Thomas Campbell, Thomas Manning and John Mulligan, of Narberth. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Home Comforts For the Sick

FOR YOU AND YOUR NEIGHBOR

"Home Comforts for the Sick," is a movement which many places have established since the influenza proved to the public how, in need of comforts, any one might find himself without time for preparation. The Women's Club of Narberth has now taken this up as one of its departments.

Through the columns of this paper, requests have been made for gifts of articles that could be of use during sickness. There has been a generous response to this request, and it is hoped there will be many other articles added as well as duplicates of the following list:

- 1 adjustable wheel chair,
- 2 pairs of crutches,
- 1 adjustable bed rest,
- 2 bed pans,
- 2 rubber rings,
- 2 English ice cups,
- 3 hot water bottles,
- 1 baby bath tub

Those who are willing to lend their sick comforts as they are needed will kindly call 1238-J, or communicate with Mrs. Wm. Livingston, or Mrs. E. C. Batchelor. Your name will be kept on record and in case of necessity you will be called upon to lend such articles for the period of illness and they will be returned to you.

Narberth is keeping abreast of the times and this is a movement worthy of your support. It will take but little time to send a message that you have a gift, and the Women's Community Club will take good care of the articles and see that they are well used.

Those who may have need of any article for any sickness, call Narberth 1238-J, and if it is there in stock or can be obtained, you are welcome to have the use of it at a small rental. Do not hesitate to use them. Do not hesitate in giving them.

Tennis Dinner Dance Next Saturday Night

PRESENTATION OF TOURNAMENT
PRIZES AT BIG AFFAIR IN ELM
HALL

Members of the Narberth Tennis Association, their wives and friends will hold their annual dinner-dance next Saturday evening, November 12, at 6:30 o'clock at Elm Hall.

This is probably the biggest and most important affair in the Association's social season, and every member who can possibly arrange to attend is urged to do so.

What is equally important is that members send their reservations as soon as possible to Carl B. Metzger, chairman of the Entertaining Committee, No. 15 Chestnut avenue, Narberth. Each member has been supplied with a return post card, pre-addressed for mailing to Mr. Metzger, and is asked to indicate on the reverse of the card, by striking out the words "will not," or the word "will," that he will or will not attend the dinner-dance; fill in the number of reservations he wants, and sign his name and address. Those cards MUST reach Mr. Metzger by the last mail on next Wednesday, November 9.

A fine menu has been arranged and other preparations made to insure an enjoyable evening.

Editorial

AN UNFORTUNATE ATTITUDE.

It has come to the attention of the editor, a graduate of the Narberth High School, that publicity in connection with the present campaign for School Directors has been so presented as to cast reflection on the Alumni in general, and those in college in particular. Speaking simply from a sense of loyalty to the school which gave him an excellent college preparation, the editor presents the following facts:

Since 1918 (excluding this year's class, whose records are not now available), 19 graduates of the local High School have entered college, and of these 16 are still in attendance, with varying scholarship records of a generally good average. Several of these have distinguished themselves in scholarship from the first. On the whole, a really fine showing.

While recognizing the existence of serious defects, it seems that, rather than to encourage disparagement of our High School, a more helpful and less critical attitude from the town as a whole would result in fewer students being driven from the school, and a squarer deal for those now in attendance.

MAKE IT STRONG.

A six-weeks' "Campaign of Information" in the columns of Our Town closes with this issue.

Next Tuesday the Bond Issue will be presented to the people for their half-hearted or unanimous approval—depending on the thoroughness with which the voters have informed themselves of the many and diversified advantages of the project.

The Narberth Civic Association, through Our Town, not only wholeheartedly recommends the acquisition of this land, but urges its friends to insure the future complete success of this every-citizen improvement by registering their approval 1007 strong.

ON ASH COLLECTIONS

Speaking of cellars, "a man may be down but he is never out," especially if his cellar be a modern one.

But be Narberth's cellars what they may, it seems to be the general consensus of opinion that they would be welcomed to that thrice blessed individual, the ash collector.

The ash collector of "before the war" is the one to whom we refer. The war may have made the world safe for democracy, but has it been fought in vain?

Have not labor conditions righted themselves so that Narberth can again be the Suburb Par Excellence?

Shall a thousand of us get all "rashed" up or go away on a business trip, and be worried about the wife and babies struggling with the ash cans, or shall our Highway Department return to its status quo ante bellum?

Oh! Borough Fathers, hear our plea!

Communications

To the Editor of Our Town:

Hallowe'en frolics are all right, but when it comes to damaging property, inflicting loss and extra work on owners, it is time something were done to stop such mischief. Our streets needed policing that night. It happened to be time to put out ashes on the north side, and in various places boxes were upset and ashes strewn over sidewalk and grass. A pile of filled boxes was set on one porch so that when the door was opened they would fall inward. A neighbor had her screen door smeared with soft soap. How many gates were earned off I have not heard—a favorite prank. In absence of police, residents might fear a local patrol that night.

Anti-Hallowe'en.

RECKLESS DRIVING

To the Editor of Our Town:

As a result of the reckless manner in which automobiles are permitted to be driven on the streets of Narberth, there occurred a terrible crash at the intersection of Narberth and Windsor avenues on Sunday morning at eleven o'clock, just as hundreds of children were returning from the three Sunday Schools in the vicinity. Fortunately the little folks and the older folks as well who happened to be at the place just as at that time were able to scurry out of harm's way as the two machines crashed together, one of which climbed onto the pavement in front of Dr. Faries' property.

A Buick touring car carrying L 6457 was racing east on Windsor avenue and a truck carrying L 564192 was going south on Narberth. It is said that both cars were being driven at about 30 miles per hour and that neither of the drivers blew their horns. Though the machines were badly wrecked, the occupants escaped injury. This is one of the fortunate occasions in which no one was killed or maimed—but shall we continue to take chances and permit reckless driving through the Borough?

A timely question for the Police Commission to explain to the people of Narberth is how much money is expended for police protection and what does the Borough collectively receive in return?

Now this is merely for information of the people of Narberth, there is no doubt but the money is well spent but the people have a right to some information on the subject.

Tax-Payer.

To the Editor of Our Town:

As usual in this part of the country October has been the finest month of the year for out-door living, whether work or play, few or no storm or cloudy days, softened sunshine, balmy breezes, and a slowly changing coloration in woods and fields, not as brilliant as in New England forests, but rich in yellow brown and dull reds, giving a warm, mellow tone to the landscape. It is a time for pleasant work in backyard gardens—gleaning the latest ears of sweet corn; the pods of lima and string beans, the leaves just touched with the first frost; the remaining tomatoes, the beets and carrots; banking up the celery; pulling stakes and cornstalks, and various garden rubbish to be burned; getting ready to plant tulips, and other bulbs, taking up gladioli, dahlias and cannas for cellar storage, leaving the forking up of the vegetable ground, and covering of perennials with leaves to November days.

October is also the choice time for long walks and rides, and we hear of many "hikes" by church men's clubs and botanical societies. And never is the beauty of Main Line woods and fields so apparent as in this month.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENTS

NARBERTH STUDENTS IN THE COLLEGES

Apologists for the School Board of the Narberth High School have taken exception to the statement of the Independent Voters' Committee to the effect that our High School did not rank with other high schools in preparing its graduates for college.

But what are the facts? The University of Pennsylvania makes this statement:

"I find that we have apparently not had many students from the Narberth High School during the past few years. Two entered in 1920. I find both of these ranked in the lowest quarter of the class at the end of the first term of the freshman year. This record is, of course, not very complimentary to the school, but I can assure you that the University does not draw any general conclusion on such slight evidence. We hope that we shall have more of your graduates in the future and that their records will be more creditable."

We appreciate the courteous and charitable statement that the University does not draw "any general conclusion" from the facts cited, but we know what the University does not—there's a reason. The recent protesting mass meeting of Narberth citizens is an evidence that our High School is not what it should be.

Swarthmore College writes that it has in recent years admitted three Narberth High School students on certificate. One made "a good record." Another "withdrew before the end of the first semester and made a very poor record." Another "made a poor record as a student," although passing all but one course.

Bryn Mawr has graduated five Narberth High School graduates. The last two "graduated with respective general averages of 72.419 and 69.185."

There is one ray of light in all this darkness. It comes from Wilson College, which admitted one Narberth High School girl four years ago and "she is a very good student. We would appreciate having others like her." She, by the way, happens to be the daughter of Mr. Harry M. Chalfant, one of the Independent candidates for School Director. Are the citizens of Narberth going to allow the low standard of scholarship in our Schools to continue, or will they, on next Tuesday, register their disapproval by electing Abbie W. Nickerson and Harry M. Chalfant as School Directors?

Independent Voters' Committee.

BUNCOMBE AND BLUSTER

A Democratic advertisement appeared in last week's Our Town. Its political chicanery was obvious. It might be a mistake to answer it. Proper regard for those attacked, however, would seem to make recognition of the insidious thing a public duty. From first to last the article teems with inaccuracies and worse. There was no group of men on the 3:15 P. M. train. Narberth men work for their living. Neither did many men arriving on a "later train" make the pompous statement manufactured for the occasion. The whole cloth is showing its hideous head. Narberth children attend the Narberth Schools. School census figures prove that less than 5% go elsewhere. And that includes all those who patronize private and parochial schools. The effort to attach personal respectability and public neglect to Mr. Dothard and Mrs. Batchelor is pitiable. Their opponents are hard pressed. They know their cause is on a dimsy structure. They realize that spleen, jealousy and ambition form its keynote. We have never had to do with such mean things in Narberth before, and we don't want to get used to them now. Mrs. Batchelor was selected as a School Director after a thorough canvass of the community. The School Board strictly observed public sentiment. She is a competent woman, president of the Community Club, and highly esteemed for her ability to do things and to get things done. She is the kind of woman who belongs in public office. Mr. Dothard is the salt of the earth. He has never sought public office, and he does not seek it now. His excellent talents have brought the duties to him. He accepted in the spirit of service. He should be retained for the benefit of the community. Common decency warrants a proper recognition of this man of sterling qualities. Shame on the vote which is cast against him. The voters will not be deceived. Fair play and common sense will prevail. The schools must not be demoralized. Personal grudges are not public affairs. Harmony effects results. Progress never was associated with humbombe.

Vote the straight Republican ticket. A Square Deal.

Now Is The Time

For All Good Men and Women To Come To the Aid of Their Own Home Town

The Outdoor Community Centre will eliminate an eye-sore that has hurt Narberth for years. It will preclude admission of undesirable features in the Borough limits. It will provide a modern athletic field. It will co-ordinate a comprehensive school plan. It will furnish facilities for the small children. It assures a place for festive occasions. It can be utilized as a safe mecca for skating and other winter sports. It will stabilize all property values. It will save the community thousands of dollars in its future development. It will mark real progress.

LESS-THAN-A-MILL BOND ISSUE

Election, Tuesday, November 8th, 1921 - - VOTE YES

THE ECONOMIC SIDE

It has been demonstrated that even if taxes have to be raised on account of this small bond issue, the increase cannot amount to more than 95 cents on each thousand dollars of assessments. There is as much reason to believe taxes will NOT be raised at all as to surmise that they will be raised. VOTE YES!

It has been declared by those competent to judge such things that every property in the Borough will be worth more with the Outdoor Community Centre than without it. VOTE YES!

In this square-mile town of ours, conservative estimates of realty values approximate Twelve Million Dollars. To increase that total by only one per cent. would make a gain of $120,000, four times the amount of the Bond Issue. Our own self-preservation impels a vote of YES.

It has not been disputed that the community must buy some land some place for a further development of the schools. What shall we do—buy improved property at the rate of $25,000 or $30,000 for a single acre, or secure 7 acres for $22,500? Common sense again impels a vote of YES!

You came to the suburbs because, among other things, you believed in open spaces. What do you prefer, the railroad plot huddled up with houses, commercial garages, or worse, or do you not agree that we would all be better off if this last large plot left in Narberth were made a community centre and provided with facilities which would be for the benefit of all of us, young and old? VOTE YES!

THE HUMAN SIDE

What is your answer to the question as to how we can best conserve the morals and wholesome progress of the boys and girls of the community? Shall we let them go on their own bent, or shall we provide a place where they can enjoy all the advantages American children ought to have and which no enlightened people should deny them? VOTE YES!

Should we have a public place for gala occasions, for Fourth of July celebrations, for instance, for outdoor affairs of all kinds under community auspices, or should we just dismiss all these things and live our lives without them? Does man live on bread alone? VOTE YES!

It is said that Americanism is best described as that spirit which makes the place you live in better because you live there. Do we or do we not subscribe to this when we vote YES for the Outdoor Community Centre? VOTE YES!

Also as an American you are a devotee of the great American sports. Are you or are you not comfortable in the reflection that you are now living in a place which has absolutely no conveniences for organized outdoor exercises, that our boys and young men have to go outside of their own Home Town when they desire to engage in such contests? Is it or is it not your wish that this sorry situation shall be continued? VOTE YES!

Are we or are we not entitled to claim our share for the progress of the race, for the advancement of our community, if we fail to co-operate in all good things, if we neglect to exercise our privilege of suffrage, to approve with our ballot the proposals which are submitted for the welfare of the people at large? Better a thousand times to vote NO than not to vote at all. VOTE YES!

Let the Answer Be Unanimous

YES YES YES

Even if you did not, or could not vote at the Primaries, you can vote at the General Election, Tuesday, November 8, 1921, 7 a. m. to 7 p. m., at the Fire House. The help of every citizen is needed.

D. A. R. Organizes Chapter at Narberth

The General John Knox Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution of Narberth, Pa., was organized Saturday, October 22, at Guden Hutten, Lehighton, Pa., the summer home of the Organizing Regent, appointed by the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, Mrs. Samuel Z. Shope, 108 Iona Avenue, Narberth, Pa.

The home was built many years ago on the former site of Guden Hutten of Colonial and Revolutionary history. Mrs. Edwin Erle Sparks, State Regent, wife of the President Emeritus of Pennsylvania State College, presided. In her address to the Chapter she said in part: "When you became members of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, you received the highest honor ever conferred by any Society or Organization not because of family traditions or marriage titles, but because indisputable records proved you were descended from an American Patriot. Let me admonish you at all times and in all things to live worthy of your ancestors." She outlined briefly the splendid Americanization work being carried on by the National Society D. A. R., which includes among other things the distribution among the aliens as they land at Ellis Island, the D. A. R. Manual on American history, ideals, opportunities, etc. She described the fitting Memorial to the Pilgrim mother which will be erected at Plymouth, Massachusetts, by the National Society D. A. R.

Miss Minnie F. Mickle, the celebrated genealogist and Past Vice President General of Mickle's Road, Allentown, in her address spoke of the very appropriate name selected by the New Chapter, for General John Knox was a great Patriot. He accomplished the almost impossible deeds against the greatest odds. She predicted a splendid future for and great accomplishments by a Chapter named for so great a hero, for in studying the life of such a distinguished patriot the Daughters could not help but be inspired to greater and higher endeavor.

First Vice-Regent—Mrs. Joseph A. Kelly.

Second Vice-Regent—Miss Clara Olive Lentz.

Recording Secretary—Miss Martha Schadel.

Treasurer—Mrs. John P. Krause.

Historian—Mrs. R. T. Small.

Following the installation of the new officers, the new Regent was called to the Chair, and after giving a brief sketch of the history of Guden Hutten, she pledged the Chapter to a life of service to humanity.

The first action of the New Chapter was the unanimous endorsement of Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook's candidacy for President General in 1923.

After the meeting a pleasant social hour was spent with Mrs. Shope and Mrs. Lentz as hostesses. During the day the members and guests were taken on an automobile tour through historic Mauch Chunk, Fort Franklin, Weissport and surrounding territory.

PREPARATION OF PARCELS FOR THE MAILS.

Due to the failure of patrons to properly prepare parcels for mailing many have been damaged in transit, resulting in complaint against the service and losses to patrons. This also entails additional expense, as in the larger offices two or more employees are engaged regularly in rewrapping improperly prepared packages received from other offices.

Patrons are urged to not bring parcels to the post office for mailing unless they are well wrapped in strong paper and tied with good stout cord, for they cannot be accepted.

Since sending parcels by mail has become so general it is a matter of great convenience to have on hand a ball of good cord and some real wrapping paper.

Public Appreciation To Mr. Robert J. Nash

Boosting Narberth?

Rather! It happened this way:

Mr. Robert J. Nash (a "real" realtor), telephoned one of the officers of the Narberth Choral Society one day recently, and, much to his delectation, requested "About 100 tickets for your Metropolitan concert on November 8th, please. I have boasted so much about Narberth to my Philadelphia friends that I want to prove my assertions, and am going to send them all tickets to hear our fine Narberth songsters, then I won't have to argue the point further."

It is not so much the financial support in this instance that is so deserving of our plaudit and commendation, but the splendid, whole-souled, humane interest and willingness to actually shoulder some responsibility, and help along this worthy enterprise in behalf of the little slummies of our settlement districts.

Mr. Nash is one of the Active Boosters of Narberth, and the Choral Society is greatly favored in having his especial interest focused so munificently upon it.

Welfare Federation Has Motion Picture

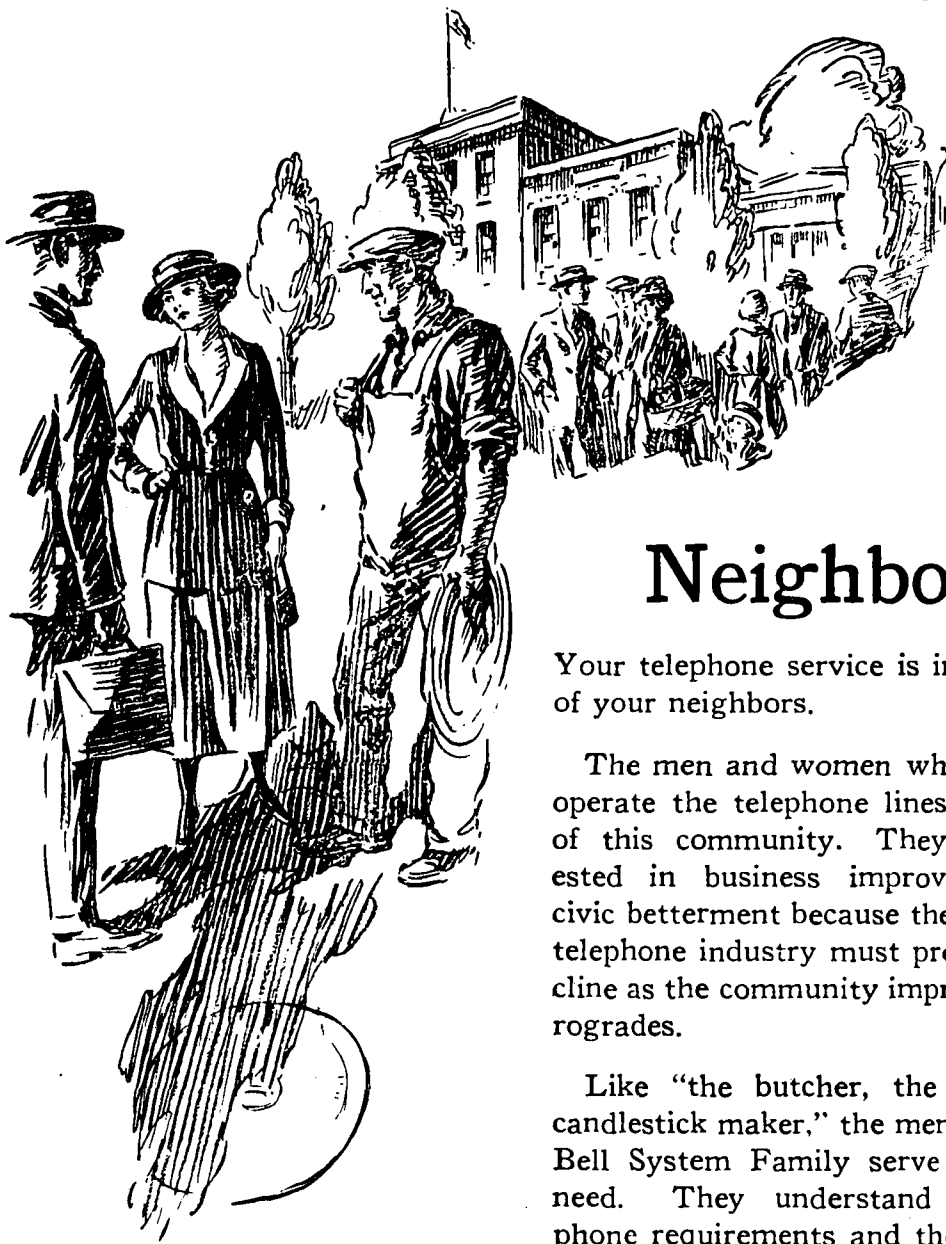

DRIVE UNDER WAY FOR FUNDS FOR A WELFARE WORK IN PHILADELPHIA AND VICINITY

Billy Penn has at last appeared in public on the stage, according to the promise made by the Welfare Federation of Philadelphia some weeks ago. The movie film, "One Call, One Heart, One Answer," designed to tell the people of Philadelphia and vicinity in vivid, dramatic fashion, how the one hundred and twenty welfare agencies united in the Federation help the sick, the poor, the neglected, the helpless and homeless, day in and day out, the year round, and what this great service of mercy and constructive philanthropy means to the 2,000,000 people of the Greater Philadelphia, is being shown this week in a dozen theatres scattered throughout the city and suburbs. From now until the close of the campaign on November 18, it will be on the screen, until every part of the city has had an opportunity to see it.

The picture is said by those who have seen it to be a real "Thriller." Billy Penn, after his years of silent vigil on City Hall tower, steps down from his high pedestal and travels, amazed and delighted, about the great modern city that has risen out of the village he founded. He witnesses one of the countless street accidents that grow out of the city's growing congestion. He sees the constant need for help that arises in the lives of the city's millions. In sorrow and pity he then inquires what is being done about it in his "City of Brotherly Love," and is taken through the hospitals, watches the visiting nurses and the friendly visitors of the charitable societies go into the homes of the needy, visits the homes and institutions for the aged and helpless. At last, he turns back to his tower, but pleads with his people to sustain these mighty agencies for humanitarian service.

The list of agencies that comprise the Federation has lately grown so fast that it has now reached 120, or a vast majority of the non-sectarian agencies of the city. Their combined budgets, for which the Federation will make its appeal during the week from November 14 to 18, amounts to more than $4,000,000. The Federation points out that this whole sum is scarcely one-fortieth of what the city and suburb spends in a single year for luxuries and personal pleasures, like tobacco, candy and theatres, yet it will sustain the agencies in the Federation for a full fifteen months.

Federation activities in the outlying communities are under the general direction of Mrs. J. E. Caldwell, of Bryn Mawr. Special efforts will be made to give every resident of the suburbs, whose lives are so closely bound with Philadelphia's by social and business ties, an opportunity to help in the work. Volunteers for this big piece of work are now being enrolled, posters and literature are being distributed, and

THE TUBERCULOSIS HOSPITAL

Two Narberth Men on Montgomery County Committee

Plans for a campaign to urge the people to vote "Yes" for the referendum to be taken at the general election next month as to whether a Tuberculosis Hospital is to be erected in Montgomery County are being furthered by a Central Committee of the Montgomery County Tuberculosis Society, comprising Herbert H. Ganser, Chairman of General Committee; Prof. Paul A. Mertz, Vice-chairman; Robert J. Edgar, director; Roy Huber, publicity chairman; Fletcher W. Stites, election chairman; Miss Wanda M. Kneas, secretary; J. Truman Ewert, treasurer. A letter has been received by Mr. Ganser from Gifford Pinchot endorsing the commendable movement and every voter should feel it an exceptional privilege to get behind so worthy a project.

Mr. Pinchot, who as Christmas Seal Chairman in Pennsylvania, is deeply interested in the fight against tuberculosis, in his letter approving the tuberculosis hospital project says:

"Economically it would be good business for your country to provide a tuberculosis hospital. The initial cost spread over twenty or thirty years means an expense annually to each voter of the price of only a few cigars or plates of ice cream. But this outlay will come back many fold in several ways. It would reduce the expense of county relief and the family would be made independent. The number of dependent widows and orphans would be smaller. It would be less expensive to care for contact cases. There would be need for less private benevolence. Morbidity and sickness would be reduced. It would make really effective the effort now being made to lessen and wipe out the White Plague.

"But beyond any material benefit it would be good business in preventing the spread of tuberculosis and making your citizens healthier and happier.

"A county tuberculosis hospital is for the benefit of every resident of the county. A vote 'Yes' on November 8th will mean the providing of health insurance for every resident.

"I trust your effort to secure a favorable vote on this matter will be successful."

CARE OF EVERGREENS AND RHODODENDRONS THIS WINTER.

Is it going to be a cold winter? Some prophets say so; a railroad man is preparing for a cold winter and bases his calculations on the law of averages as applied to temperatures. However that may be, we know that low temperature is not the only factor that affects the resisting power of evergreen shrubs and trees; much depends on how well they are prepared for winter.

The unusually dry weather this season has weakened these trees and rendered them more susceptible to the weather. Therefore, be sure to have them all thoroughly watered and after you have watered them, dig down twelve to eighteen inches to see if the object has been accomplished; if not, water again until you are sure that they have enough water. With these precautions, I have reason to believe there will be few if any losses, no matter how cold it gets.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Various advertisements have recently been published in Our Town signed "Independent Voters' Committee" and "Democratic Club," regarding the coming election of two members to the School Board. The writer being an Independent Voter, but not a committee member, observes that all of the Educational shortcomings of the Narberth Public Schools are charged to the local School Board. Some time ago, Governor Wm. C. Spraul, during an address delivered at a large gathering interested in Educational Matters, stated that he much regretted acknowledging that the large and wealthy State of Pennsylvania ranked twenty seventh in its Public School systems and that one of his chief efforts during his administration, would be to change this shameful condition. Due to his efforts, it now ranks twenty one. This is cited in an effort to call the attention of the Narberth people to the fact that the principal blame for such conditions lies in the State system and not particularly at the door of any local board, most of whom give generously of their time and effort with no reward save criticism generously bestowed by non thinking people.

The School Board's duties are outlined by the State School Code, which sets forth very plainly the course which is to be followed, and which makes it a custodian, responsible for the school property which is yours and mine, and for the upkeep of which you and I must pay through our taxes. If, therefore, you and I have property which we ourselves are unable to look after, do we delegate one who speaks or writes well to care for it, or do we rather seek some one who knows how to properly care for it? This brings out the reason for this article, namely, to impress upon the minds of the people that in electing Mr. Robert J. Dothard, you are putting your property in charge of one who knows, of one in whom the Pennsylvania Railroad has sufficient confidence to leave in his charge, millions of dollars worth of property, who as a single instance of his ability, has this season through his knowledge, saved this borough approximately $400.00 on its coal alone and his advice during his past term of office in keeping the school properties in good physical condition at a minimum cost, has been invaluable when coupled with common sense along Educational lines. Men with this class of knowledge and ability who are willing to give up their time for civic pride, are rare, and it behooves the people of Narberth to give thought to the opposing candidates' qualifications, keeping in mind that Education does not mean book learning only.

The women of Narberth have been insisting for some time back, that a member of their sex be put on the School Board; therefore, when a vacancy occurs the Board itself, under the State Law, must fill such vacancy, and, having the wishes of the people in mind, sought a woman. After considerable inquiry, the office was offered to Mrs. Grace C. Batchelor, since she was recommended by the Women's Community Club, numbering approximately two hundred or more members, who had already twice elected her to its Presidency; Mrs. Batchelor accepted the office and since her appointment, it would seem that she is capable of fulfilling the trust and justifies the opinion of those who recommended her. This in a way will answer the criticism once mentioned as "Autocratic Control," as the writer had some knowledge of the course pursued in her selection.

In a recent advertisement in Our Town, the statement was made that 27% of our children go to outside schools. The official school census, taken under State Law, shows 653 children of school age in the borough, the official registration in the school is 622, showing that less than 4% go to other schools, sectarian and otherwise, which is a parent's privilege. Another article recited "Our High School does not receive proper recognition from Colleges." As far as any high school certificate is recognized at this time by any college, it is a matter of record open to all at the school office, that this year, more than ever before, has the Narberth High School been invited to send its students to various universities and colleges.

In closing, the writer might say he holds no brief for the School Board; has never been nor desired to be a member, and has differed with them many times, being an old resident, but has taken this occasion to combat what are deliberate misstatements for political effect, or else are set forth in such ignorance that they should be given no credence.

Think carefully, when making your choice at the polls next Tuesday,—of the qualifications of the candidates, keeping in mind Mr. R. J. Dothard's ungrudging years of service, his ability, and the fact that shortly new school buildings MUST go up. Would you have a builder or a writer build you house? You and I own, maintain and put up the money for our schools, and all education is not found in books. Think it over, your State ranks twenty-first. Put the blame where it belongs,—on your State school system. Your local board does what it has to do and no new member can change it.

Another Independent Voter.

Strong Endorsement By State Authority

SAYS PROVIDING RECREATION
CENTRE AND PLAYGROUND
FACILITIES IS GOOD SERVICE TO COMMUNITY.

Because he knew nothing about the proposed Outdoor Recreation Community Centre and Playground on which the people of Narberth are going to vote on election day, a statement made by William S. Taylor, Assistant Director of the Teachers' Bureau of the Pennsylvania State Department of Public Education, in the course of a letter written recently to Walton M. Wentz, temporary president of the Narberth Home and School Association, carries the strongest possible argument in favor of the project.

In his letter to Mr. Wentz, and in speaking of the general value of recreation centres and public playground facilities, Mr. Taylor said:

"It is the problem of the Home and School Association, in co-operation with the Superintendent of Schools and the teachers, to make such surveys as seem to be necessary to ascertain the needs of the community, and then to work with the school authorities in providing those things which are needed to make the school work of the school system more effective.

"For instance, a survey may reveal the fact that you have not recreation centres enough for your children. Your playground facilities at the schools may be inadequate. If your Association can be instrumental in providing more recreation centres and playground facilities you will have done a good service for your community.

"If these are inadequate it would be my suggestion that you set aside one meeting for discussing those things."

Here's still another reason why you should vote "Yes" on the bond issue for the Outdoor Recreation Community Centre and Playground when you go to the polls on election day.

WESTMINSTER CIRCLE

The regular monthly meeting of the Westminster Circle will be held Thursday evening, November 15th, at Mrs. Arthur W. Burns, 108 Woodside Avenue. Sewing for the hospital has been distributed, and Mrs. Loughlin, chairman of the Committee, would like all the finished articles to be in her hands the evening of the meeting.

I most heartily approve of a proposition of this kind. It is one of the outstanding needs of the community; something in which the entire community should have a part.—Avery S. Demmy, Pastor of Baptist Church.

NARBERTH CHORAL'S FIRST LOCAL CONCERT DECEMBER 16

The first local concert of the season to be given by the Narberth Choral Society has been announced for Friday evening, December 16.

Prof. Niece has planned just as interesting a program for this concert as has been prepared for the Metropolitan on November 8. He has received requests for a varied program of popular and folk songs, as well as an expressed desire for an evening of more serious musical themes, and has endeavored to please the sentiments as evidenced by the majority.

Some of the leaders of the choral will serve an oyster supper to the entire Society membership on the evening of Monday, November 14, in the Y. M. C. A. building, which will be supplemented by entertaining "stunts" by different members and parts of the chorus and followed by the weekly rehearsal. Prof. and Mrs. Niece and Mrs. Hillegas will be the guests of the evening.

FRANK H. FLEER

Frank H. Fleer, of Philadelphia, a well-known chewing-gum manufacturer, died Monday night of this week, at the age of sixty-five.

Mr. Fleer was a brother of Henry Fleer, of 15 Woodside Avenue, Narberth.

The auto can bring us in quick touch with it. While the rush of traffic is over the two pikes, the wise driver seeks the side roads and the long, winding lanes, where the quiet is seldom interrupted. One who will take any side road from Montgomery Pike, between Narberth and Bryn Mawr (most of which will bring him round to the pike again) will be repaid by the charming woodsy nooks and secluded homes that he will pass. This experience can be repeated again and again.

Many Enjoy Tennis Hallowe'en Dance

FINE, FANTASTIC, AND FUNNY
COSTUMES AT BIG PARTY LAST
FRIDAY EVENING—DINNER
DANCE NOVEMBER 12

Fine, fantastic and funny were the costumes worn by the participants in the annual Hallowe'en Dance of the Narberth Tennis Association held last Friday evening in Elm Hall.

The Goddess of Liberty was there, and so was the Western cow puncher, and the latter's Mexican brother from over the Rio Grande, and peasants from all parts of Europe, two beribboned and distinguished representatives of the Diplomatic Corps, a couple of jailbirds from out Fairmount Avenue or up Sing Sing way, the North Pole himself and a white furred dame of the Northlands, a daring Spanish torero, a dainty little shepherdess, a Red Cross Nurse, an art student from Paris or Greenwich Village, Old Mother Goose, natives of the Flowery Kingdom and the Empire of the Mikado, a couple of Ku Kluxers, a gay young sailor lad, harlequins, an animated bell hop, Punch of the well known "Punch and Judy" family, Indians, clowns, and etc., and etc., and last and reddest and grandest of all, old Mephisto himself, than whom no more pulchritudinous Mephistopheles ever trod the boards of grand opera since Faust was invented.

All and all it was a highly satisfactory and enjoyable party, and the music and decorations in everything was all that could have been desired. Carl Metzger, chairman of the Entertainment Committee, who made his bow as an impresario and general promoter of good times, did such an excellent job that we may expect much from him during the coming season.

The next tennis affair will be the dinner-dance which will be held next Saturday evening, November 12, in Elm Hall. This is the annual celebration which marks the official end of the tennis playing season. At the dinner the prizes won in the annual Labor Day tournament are awarded, and a dance follows and members and their families always look forward to the occasion with the keenest interest.
